“ Jimmy and Donna are two of my favorite people. They are truly precious and dear friends. From the first day I met Jimmy, it was a race to see who could pull the joke on the other first. Two years ago when I had surgery, Jimmy refused to allow me to have anyone else other than he and Donna drive me to Dallas. They stayed with my sister during my surgery and I can only imagine the conversations. Jimmy couldn't wait to post my picture in my surgery cap and gown on facebook. He was always a joy to be around and loved cutting up with everyone. Heaven gained a wonderful angel. Donna, Jimmy still watches over you sweetheart, just in a higher position. He loved you very much and loved making Momma (as he called you) happy. Prayers for your entire family. Jimmy Rose, you will surely missed but never forgotten.
Love You,
Mary Palmeri

“ I met Jimmy last year where he dropped his grandson off at the bus stop every morning. He and I talked almost every morning and I liked him a lot. He would always stay until the busses left to "make sure nothing happened". Jimmy was a good guy and I wish I could have enjoyed that catfish dinner with him we always said we would have, but didn't. Rest in peace Jimmy.

“ I remember visiting Jimmy and his family in Terrell when we lived there. He was fun and full of life. More than once his mom had to warn us to slow down. We moved to Tyler and didn't see each other after that but over the recent years sent a few messages to each other.

Through those messages and his post on Facebook I could see his love of family and friends, his faith in God and a sense of humor as he suffered through very serious illness.

He spoke openly about what he believed in. His life was an example of Duty and Responsibility. His love of family and friends strengthened all of us.

He will be missed but we will meet again. In a new body without pain and a life that will go on forever!
