“ Aunt Faye I know you are sad now but remember Uncle JL is not suffering now and having a joyful time in the stars above. I will always remember the games we went to and the fun we had. He will always be in our hearts and my son's will carry the fond memories of their Great Uncle JL with them. Even the last Friday Uncle JL was here he was still cutting up with me at the hospital like he always did.

Just remember if the wealth of a man is measured by his life and how he touched others then Uncle JL was a billionaire and more. In my Prayers always.

“ We all have heroes?.Some famous and some not?.Some living and some not... He is one of mine. Whenever I ran into someone I haven?t seen in a while?.One of the very first questions they ask is: How is your grandfather? I was always so proud being related to him. I am a man of few words but when it?s about him I?m a man with plenty. He was a person who led a Christian life yet he never told you that because he lived it. He was a father and teacher to me. He taught be what values are and what a man?s word is. He taught be discipline and self determination. He taught me how to love a world when it?s hard to love. There is no doubt if he wasn?t in my life I wouldn?t be on this earth writing this. I thank him for all the good things in my life. All I can ever wish in this world is to be ten percent of the man he was, because I would have no complaints when everything is said and done.

“ Jason I am so sorry..I know this is going to be very hard on you & your family but he is finally at peace. I hope you realize that you will always have people who will be there for you..Whether we're miles apart or not.

My Deepest Sympathies are with each of you,

*Love Always,
Shannon*
