“ *Dear Chuck,
We are so saddened to hear that Joan has died. We know that the two of you had plans to spend more time nearer to people that are close to you. Hopefully some of this was done, and she was able to see her friends before being taken from you.
We are very sorry for your loss.
Sincerely,
Marty and Lupe Husti*

“ *Ollar Family,
Passing on is never an easy thing for the living to accept. The joyous side in it is that the individual who has left this time, has gone to a better more peaceful place and would not want those left behind to morn.*

*All my best wishes,

“ Joan Ollar was a feisty, opinionated, strong women whom we loved very much. I'll remember with fondness all the animal stories and her wit. Our only regret is not having the opportunity to spend more time with her.

Chuck, Rich our hearts are with you. God Bless.

“ Dear Mom:

I can't believe how hard this has been for me to say goodbye to you. For the last several years, I could not have gotten through everything without knowing you were there to talk to when I was confused, scared or just wanted to share things.

All my life you were there for me, even if I couldn't appreciate it ~ you never stopped loving me.

I will miss you more than I could ever imagine and will always know you are watching out for me. With each passing day, I'm trying to cry a little less and hopefully one day, I will just smile.

I know you are in a much better place and will one day be with you again.

*I love you very much,
Your daughter.*

“ I've been searching for my relatives as Ollar is a scarce surname. Please feel free to contact me if your are interested in our heritage.

I very sorry I did not get to meet Mrs. Joan Ollar. Maybe you'll ablige me with your memories. I'd really like that.
