“ I will really miss my friend Joann. We shared many conversations throughout the years I have known her. We talked a lot about God, our children and grandchildren. I know how much she loved her family. Each child and grandchild was very unique and special in her heart. God bless your family with the comfort only He can give.

“ Joann was a very loving person. Even though after high school we sorta lost touch I always managed to find a family member or friend who kept me informed of her whereabouts. She was my basketball sidekick. She will be missed by many. My prayers are with her family and friends

“ JoAnn was one of the sweetest kindest people I have ever known. I never saw her without a smile. When she and Ted first married they lived next door to us. One day she came over with a towel wrapped around her head, saying she had given her hair a "mayonnaise treatment" to make it shiny, but could not get the mayonnaise washed out, and she asked mother and daddy if they knew of anything that would get it out. Daddy told her kerosene would get anything out. They went outside and he washed her hair in kerosene! He forgot to say he knew of nothing that would wash out kerosene. That's a whole other story!
