“ Saddened to hear of Joe's passing. Both Penny Jones and Joe Harper notified us, and we then viewed Joe's online obituary in the Corsicana paper.

Please know that all of you are in our thoughts, and we are sorry that we could not join you today in Corsicana and Chatfield for Joe's funeral events.

To us, one of the major highlights of the annual family gatherings in Chatfield was visiting and eating with Joe and hearing all the many interesting stories he would share about family members.

Joe, Rob and myself (Jim) had our photo taken a couple of years ago at the family reunion because of some Marchbanks Civil War Parsons Brigade memorabilia that I had given to the Ennis SCV organization. I continue to be proud that we Joe and I and Rob were able to be together in this photograph.

Joe and I also exchanged e-mails from time to time through the years to share family data or just simply to say "hello."

Will miss these e-mail swaps and Joe's presence at future Hodge Family gatherings.

If we can be of help in any way, please just let us know.

Fondly....Marilyn and Jim

“Cousin Joe and my mom, Carolyn Hodge Johnson and aunt, Mary Page Hodge Shook (deceased) were children together, playing at the Big House under the watchful eye of their grandmother and parents. Their dads, Joe and Otey, were brothers who were close and did many things together as children and young men. I loved Joseph's sweet face and big heart. He was kind and caring and will be missed SO MUCH at the Chatfield Family Reunions. God Bless Joseph M. Hodge and his loving family. I extend my deepest sympathy for your loss.

“I will miss my dear cousin Joe. We talked on the phone and looked forward to the family reunions at Chatfield every year. He loved the cemetery and served on the board for several years. It will also be my last resting place.
Until we meet again Joe.
Love, Carolyn
