“ Joe has been my friend for as long as I can remember. Sometimes that meant he would knock me down, sometimes it meant he would pick me up but it always meant he would be there when needed. Very thankful for those last conversations we had. I'm sure he's already telling God how to fix some things.

My love and thoughts go out to Robin and the family.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to Joes entire family. I have had the privilege of knowing them many years. They are a kind and loving family. Joe was such a smart man. He was a great professional handy man of all trades. He also showed so much kindness and fairness when doing a job for me in my home. I knew him and his siblings when they were small. They were raised with such kindness from two awesome parents. I know Joe is now with Frank Jr, Rebecca and his dad. Heaven has another angel looking down on his family. He will be missed.
