“ Robert, I was so saddened to hear about your dad's passing. I will forever remember the night he smiled at me and told me, thanks (for caring for him). I will also remember the times we watched the 3 Stooges together and his little chuckle. He got a big kick out of the fact that we both laughed at all their silliness. I will also treasure the time he taught me, step by step, how to make his famous Hungarian Meatballs. He will be missed. Dana Cournoyer

“ Robert I am so sorry to hear about your loss, you will be in my thoughts and prayers. John was an amazing soul, and I will always remember his kindness and matter of fact attitude. He was very intelligent and told me some of the best stories. I loved hearing about his childhood and his many adventures throughout his life. He will always hold a special place in my heart. Heaven has gained one of the best.
