“ Lynda, John and I had many classes together in high school and he was a dear friend to me during those days. We had many talks about life in general and he was always such a gentleman and smarter than most about life. I am so sorry to say we lost contact during the years and I just found out about him today. My sincere condolences to you and your family and also to Jennifer and Kelly. All of you are in my prayers and God bless you all. Paula

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family in this time of loss. I have gotten close to Lance since I have had him in Sunday School class and he is a tribute to his mom and his dad - I know through him that John was special man / dad.

If there is anything that I can do once I get back after the Holiday, please let me know.

*Respectfully,
Scott Watkins*

“ Butch,

I never knew you as John. We never really knew each other as adults but, I don't think we changed all that much. You are the first playmate I can remember. My first friend. Although our lives drifted apart over the years, I'll always have the memories of the endless summer days we spent together. Whether we were at the Corsicana Day Nursery, fishing, catching crawfish, climbing trees, stalking bugs and horny toads, or just trying to 'be nice and play in the shade', we were together every chance we got. So here's to playing Hound Dog and Blue Suede shoes, you on Frank's guitar and me beating Aunt Alice's overturned laundry basket with sticks, stock car races and wrestling matches in Waco, camping and running 'trot-lines' with Daddy and Frank. We'll be forever young and happy in my heart.
