John Kayne Sullivan

With hearts full of love and sorrow, we announce the passing of John Kayne Sullivan, who was born into the arms of angels on October 15, 2025. Though his time was brief, he left an everlasting imprint on the hearts of all who awaited him with hope, joy, and boundless love.

Kayne is deeply loved and survived by his mother, Sarah Sullivan, who fought with every piece of her strength to carry him safely into this world. Her unwavering courage gave John the gift of life, and though fleeting, that life will be cherished forever. He is also survived by his brother, David Layne Richards; his aunts and uncle: Caitlyn Kuykendall, Megan Sullivan, Chelsea Kuykendall, and Zain Slovak; and his grandfather, David Sullivan. Each of them held a special place in their hearts for him long before he arrived.

Kayne is preceded in death by his grandmothers, Susan Sullivan and Kelli Dycus Kuykendall, who now cradle him in the peaceful embrace of heaven.

We find comfort in the words of Matthew 5:8:

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

Kayne’s heart was pure, untouched by the weight of this world, and we trust that he rests in perfect peace and light.
