“ Dear Carolyn

How shocked we were to receive your very sad letter today. Both James and I feel we have lost a dear friend. We had so many good times together and John's wonderful sense of humour was always to the fore. We will miss him greatly. I am writing to you also but as we have a postal strike here at the moment, it might be slower than a carrier pigeon! Our hearts go out to you and this comes with all our love - Sue and James
