“ Johnnie was a wonderful woman. I can't remember too many times that she was'nt smiling if she was'nt it was because we did something that took the smile away. She went out of her way to do for others. She will be missed dearly. You will all be in my prayers.
Love you all
Kathy

“ I read this this morning and thought it was so beautiful. I hope you find comfort in these words and knowing how much Johnnie was loved. She was one of a kind. Although life was not always kind to her, she always had a smile and and was generous to a fault. She loved people, and we loved her. She loved to relate stories about family and friends. She always liked to tell me how she "wagged" me on her hip when I was a baby, and I loved to hear it. I am comforted by the wonderful memories I have of her and will miss her beyond words. I love you, Johnnie, and I'll see you again one day in that land where we'll all be young, in good health, and with our Lord and Savior; "When we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory".

*If death my friend and me divide, thou dost not, Lord, my sorrow chide,
or frown my tears to see;
restrained from passionate excess, thou bidst me mourn in calm distress
for them that rest in thee.*

*I feel a strong immortal hope, which bears my mournful spirit up beneath its mountain load;
redeemed from death, and grief, and pain,
I soon shall find my friend again
within the arms of God.*

*Pass a few fleeting moments more and death the blessing shall restore which death has snatched away;
for me thou wilt the summons send,
and give me back my parted friend
in that eternal day.*

(Charles Wesley)

Love to you all and may God bless and comfort you, Charlene

“ Your mom/grandmother/wife/sister was such a super sweet person. I would stop by sometimes when I was walking. After my mom died she would tell me stories about when they were growing up and help me to feel better. I know that she will be missed greatly. The lose of your mother is one that can't be explained nor can you ever replace her. Just remember all of the good times you had as a family and growing up. All you can do is just take her lose one day at a time. People would always tell me that my mom was in a better place, and I do know that, but I guess I'm selfish and wanted her down here with me! And I'm sure you feel the same way too. But one day we will get to see them and all of our other loved ones that we have lost. I really am sorry for your lose.
