“ Johnny is my grandfather or "pawpaw" as I called him. Pawpaw I miss you so much!! There's been so many days I have wanted him just to come back down here and give me a huge smile and tell me to give him some sugar and sit on the back porch and give me a talking to.....I miss his advice and always protective love for us kids

“ Johnny was a good friend to have,you could ask him for advice on loading a big load or just sit and talk about nothing for hours with him. His work will live on for a long time, his memories will live on for ever. We will miss you dearly. Our sympathies to your family, may God have you as his head engineer. The Vitale family

“ When my daughter, Julie Black Crocker, designed the sculpture at the high school, Johnny donated his time and the material for the project. Julie drew the design on the metal, he cut it out and mounted it, then Julie painted it. It's still there today.
