“ My wife and I met Joe for the first time on July 26th of this year, and from the moment I met he and Carol... I can truly say what an impact they have made on our lives! In such a short time, it's hard to fathom not seeing nearly everyday. Being neighbors, we were always on the look out for one another. Cared for the donkeys, played with or looked after our respective dogs, share some time while fishing the pond behind he and Carol's home. I am really, really gonna miss him. Carol, know that my wife Tommie and I are here for you, just let us know how we can be of help, company, a shoulder, whatever you need! Joe 4, your dad was a great man, and I feel your pain.

Thank you for your tribute....and I know I can count on you and Tommie and our other great neighbors. That's part of what has kept me from losing it at times. Everyone around us has been there for me.

“ Joe loved his wife, children and grandchildren fiercely. He was a wonderful story teller, especially when reminiscing about his time with the police department, playing football, and of course his family. He always told me I reminded him of his mother and would tell me all about her, usually over some delicious food. He loved how much I enjoyed fishing for hours on end, that I wasn't scared to get my hands dirty, or even join in on target practice in the yard. He taught this girl from New York a lot about country life, including how to make the best eggs with bacon grease. And his red bean recipe will always reign supreme! Joe meant a lot to his family and took pride in caring for them. I know he will be greatly missed. I'm glad that I had the time I did with him. Sending prayers and deep condolences to his family during this difficult time. Love to the Doucet family.

“ A group of us went to a Fellowship of Christian Athletes camp at Estes Park, CO. I had injured my knee during spring training and was having surgery when we got back. We decided to hike one of the mountain side in the camp. Made it up but was really struggling coming down. Joe put me on his back and carried me over the rough part. That was the heart he had.

We always paired up for football drills, helped keep our cars running, and enjoyed hanging out with friends. Hadn't talked in a long time but thought of him often. God blessed me to call Joe my friend.

Rick, I vaguely remember that story. Over the years he recounted those glory days of the Gophers. Thank you for the kind words.

“ I was very sad to hear Joe had passed. I have known him for fifty years. I graduated from Grand Prairie High School in 1971. Joe was a senior when I was a junior. We both played Gopher Football. Joe was a good teammate and friend. I lost touch with him years ago when I moved to Arlington, Texas. However, we had a mutual friend named “Hawk” (Clarence Hawkins, Jr). From time to time Hawk would tell what Joe was doing. I read in his obituary that his best friend and companion was Buster the dog. I could not help laughing out loud. I have to admit that I am really curious what breed of dog Buster is. You see, I doubt if Joe ever knew my real name is George. Joe was one of the good guys. I always liked and respected him. I am missing him already. My sincere condolences to his family and other friends. Big Joe, SYOTOS.

“ Joe and I go way back to when we went to Grand Prairie High School. I used to ride to school with him every morning and my dad would pick me up. Of course, Joe and I also played football for the District Champions - the 1969-70 Gopher Football Team! What a great time had. Joe also helped me pass Calculus and Trig. Without his help, I don't think I could have passed. Joe's life was full of loyalty, hard work, honesty ,excellence and integrity - a great man in every way! He will be greatly missed. But, our loss is heaven's gain! Joe, "Thanks!", for being my loyal friend! And thanks for making me look good in high school when I carried the football your direction. You were excellent in every way, my friend! Enjoy your rewards in heaven! And I will enjoy our memories, while anticipating our joyful reunion again in heaven. Love you Joe! Until then....
