

Josiah Alliss

September 15, 1990 - April 19, 2024

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Josiah Alliss, who departed this world on April 19, 2024, in Atlanta, Texas, surrounded by his loving family at the age of 33.

Josiah was born on September 15, 1990, in Corsicana, Texas, to Bradley Alliss and Lisa Marrs. He is survived by his devoted parents, his beloved children Liam King and Landon King, his dear siblings: Matthew Alliss and Brandon Holt and his grandparents Paula Marrs and Joann Mevis. Josiah leaves behind numerous cousins, aunts, and uncles, all of whom he held close to his heart. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Wayne Marrs and Ben Allis.

Josiah's life was marked by his passions and the love he shared with those around him. He found joy in the simple pleasures of playing video games, nurturing plants, and spending time with his cherished cat. His faith in God was a cornerstone of his life, evident in his frequent reading of the Bible and his commitment to living out its teachings.

Cooking and camping were among Josiah's favorite pastimes, where he could immerse himself in the beauty of nature and the joy of creating meals to share with loved ones. His warm spirit and generous nature endeared him to all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Josiah will be laid to rest at Hamilton-Beeman Cemetery during a graveside service on Tuesday, April 23, 2024, at 1:00 pm. Pastor Timothy Schane will officiate the ceremony, offering words of comfort and remembrance.

In honor of Josiah's memory, donations may be made to Humane Society.

Though Josiah may have left this earthly realm, his memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who loved him. He will be deeply missed and fondly remembered for his kindness, his laughter, and the light he brought into the lives of others.
