“ Joy brought light and laughter to everyone she came into contact with...Sherry and I loved to help them get back and forth to Drs. offices as Jacks' sight began to fail..Joy was indeed a hearty soul who cared for others. When she was able to drive she brought fried chicken to Allen and Cathy every week...also made many a run to Sams for paper good, etc...A wonderful lady.....always thinking of her children..She talked alot about Gary...Also proud of him as well as Allen...she is in arms of JESUS.

“ I remember when I walked into Farmer's State Bank in Wortham, I could always tell when Joy had been there because of the wonderful aroma in the air from her bringing food to Cathy and Alan. She was always the sweetest lady and will be missed by many.
