“ I am sorry for your loss and you are all in my prayers.Be stong and stay together for your wife and mother would have it no other way.Mrs.Bradley was a blessing in my life.I first met Mr.& Mrs.Bradley through my employer,I didn't think I would get to know her that good, but as time passed I enjoy seeing more often and she was as sweet as a mother or grandmother should be.I really enjoyed the time spend with her.I will miss her a lot and hope that when she sees her children and grandchildren from heaven she remembers me,for I will always remember her and she will always have a place in my heart."I will miss you a lot,and when you get to the PEARLY GATES OF HEAVEN,please pray for the ones that are staying on earth today hoping for one day seeing you again."I LOVE YOU ,Mrs.Joyce Bradley."

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Joyce was a wonderful giving woman who loved her family dearly. I used to fix her hair years ago and enjoyed her company immensely. Joyce always had something positive to say and uplifting to say. I think of her each time I make the butter pound cake from the recipe she shared with me. After I retired from the beauty business and went to work at Navarro College, I enjoyed getting to see her at the President's Tea during the holidays. Although it has been a couple years since I last saw Joyce, I never forgot what a wonderful person she was.

“ Joyce was the true epitome of a grace-filled southern lady. She expressed love, charm, charity and a genuine knowledge of what was appropriate and when. I admire and cherish her for those abilities including hand-written thank you notes. She was Joyce of the Jack and Joyce couple (spoken of almost always synonymously) as "the best marriage/family example I know. Joyce was the grandmother my daughters always wished for and HAD because God gave us the miracle of Bradley friendship. Today I have been "re-Joyce-ing" and know you live on through a multi-generational family that is centered and rooted in your values and faith. I shall always treasure our memories and count myself blessed to have been under your wing-my Earth Angel and friend.
