Joyce is preceded in death by her two children Kassia Tripp and Kenneth Schretter as well as her parents, sister dawn and brother Dana. She is survived by her two Grandsons Tyler and Noah Tripp as well as her sisters Lana, Vicki and Cara.

Joyce had a great love for cooking and helping people. In her life she owned a restaurant and a resale shop in downtown Corsicana Tx. Joyce also had a big love for animals.

She would never turn away a stray dog or cat.

In the time that I got to be a part of her world she was not only a great friend but soon became a second mother to me and my husband.

Joyce you are and always will be in our hearts and will forever be missed. Till we meet again my friend.

“Joyce you're my big sister; you always tried to help me and give me advice and in true Hansen fashion I stubbornly resisted. you always had good intentions and although we went our separate ways with living in different states and busy raising children and then our families grew with grandchildren. Life got in the way but never enough that I wasn't thinking of you. We got close again these last 2 years and those conversations will always stay with me whether you are giving me new recipes to try or laughing about the silly thing we girls did growing up. I am forever grateful we reunited, and I miss you and love you my big sister until we meet again, we will have one big family reunion just like when we were growing up & so much more to laugh about ❤️
