“ Pam, Jerry and Mike, I just this minute heard about the passing of your mother. I was so shocked. Joyce was always so full of life, laughter and happiness. She was always smiling and joking. I remember growing up next door to you guys and how much fun we all had. I remember how Joyce would fix my hair for me many times as a little girl. I know her family and friend will miss her. She was one of the nicest people I ever knew. I am so sorry that I did not know in time to attend the funeral. My heart goes out to you guys. We will always have our precious memories of Joyce.

“ Mike, Pam, & Jerry, Spouses and extended family,
I want to tell you how very sorry I am for your loss. Joyce had such a sweet, loving, joyful soul. She loved all of you so much and was so very proud of all of your accomplishments. There was never a time when I would run into her that I did not get a warm loving hug and her beautiful smile brightened the world around her. Just remember, she is as close as your heartbeat and each wonderful memory that you have of her.
You are in my thoughts and prayers,
Cindy

“ We feel great sorrow at the loss of Joyce and greive with all that knew her. She was a wonderful friend, and encouraging soul...always full of joy. One of those people in your life that could help you enjoy having a picnic in the pouring rain with a stampede of buffalo coming over the hill. Didn't see her in these last few years but her smile is clear as ever. She will be missed,but oh, what a wonderful reunion to look forward to in Glory. Adele and Mary and Joyce, together again. Sweet, sweet thought. Our prayers and love are with the family and many friends of Joyce.

“ To Pam, Jerry and Mike:

It seems I have known Joyce all of my life. She was one of my mom's best friends and was always there for her. Joyce was one of the most beautiful people I have had the pleasure to meet. Not only in physical beauty, because she also had a beautiful soul. She was gracious and kind. Soft spoken and sweet. Joyce could make you feel as if you were beautiful and special no matter what the circumstances were. She always had a smile for you, a hug, and a kiss. It was with shock and sorrow to hear about her passing away. There will be a "shadow spot" in the void she leaves behind as she will be taking a little sunshine with her. Your mother was truly a treasure and anyone that had been blessed with her in their lives will be a little less whole now without her. My mother (Ann Woods) and Doris Underhill will miss Joyce so much in the coming days ahead. They were a great threesome!

May God give you strength, comfort and some peace in your heart as you face the days ahead. He could not have called home another Angel as sweet as your mother.
