“ To our precious Joyce whom we love so much. You went to be with the Lord way before I was ready to let you go but God was ready for you and he knew what was best. I will miss your laughter and all the jokes you used to tell me but the best part of all is that one day we will join you in our Heavenly Home and we will be together again. RIP. my darling daughter. I love you. Mother and Daddy.

“Joyce you will be greatly missed by so many people. I am blessed to have had the time the lord gave me with you... I love you baby... May the Lord be with your family and comfort each and every one of them. I remember growing up with yall in my life and then in my adult life i got the chance to work with you... Everyday you made the whole call center crack up... No matter how you felt you pushed through and managed to still be full of joy.. I will miss hearing u laughing in your office about a funny joke . And we shared secrets about people we gossiped about lol... You know who they were i will never tell. I love you angel and you will always be in my heart. R.I.P. Joyce Lanell Bland Lloyd....
