

Juanita Flores Martinez

September 6, 1944 - January 5, 2023

Juanita Flores Martinez passed away while she slept on the morning of Thursday, January 5th, 2023

She was born September 6th, 1944, in Corsicana to Elias Hernandez and Mary Flores

She was baptized on February 9th, 1945, according to the Rite of the Roman Catholic Church.

growing up she attended school in Barry and Corsicana. She left high school before graduating to give birth to her son, soon after, she started working, she would work for the next fifty years.

She started working at small grocery stores, then into businesses like Texas Miller Hat Factory, Hagar Slacks, and Woolworths. Most will remember her from Brookshire's Grocery, from which she retired in 2010. After retiring, she enjoyed traveling, she loved seeing new sights, restaurants, motels and above all, Casino's. If there was a bus leaving Corsicana, there was a good chance she was on it.

She enjoyed cruises with her sisters and Las Vegas.

Mothers last years were spent staying close to home. She was a member of Second Avenue Baptist Church for many years, after moving to Blooming Grove, she moved her membership to First Baptist in Blooming Grove, where she was a member until her passing.

She leaves behind her son and daughter-in law Edmond and Dawn Flores of Blooming Grove, grand-daughter and husband, Heather and Ronald Wilcoxon. Great grandchildren Nicholas Austin and Lauren Elizabeth Wilcoxon, all of Corsicana, also leaves behind a brother and sister -in-law, Johnny and Lola Flores, Sisters Delores and Kater L. Swinson of Melbourne, Florida, And Margaret Pena of San Antonio Also numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Visitation will be Thursday, January 12th from 6-8pm at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Graveside Funeral Service will be held at 11:00am Friday, January 13th at Oakwood Cemetery with Bro. Grady Cashion officiating.
