“ Judy was a talented & caring person--we especially saw those traits in her as she taught the junior Sunday School class. Her decorations, activities, crafts, & lessons made happy & memorable impressions on her young students. She always made them feel welcomed & special. Her kindness to people young & old made this world a better place. She is missed.

“ Judy was my sister-in-law at one time. We continued to be friends after her and Alan divorced and we were so very close. We lost touch with each other but found each other many years later.
I hope you all are ok and will heal from this huge loss in your lives.
RIP Judy.

“ Judy, there is so much to share, you were a big part of my life, what I remember the most is how you took me in at a young age when I fell in love with your brother George, the one and only love of my life. We became family. Through that love I have two wonderful men, your nephews George W Sallee III and Joseph Sallee. You were a beautiful, strong, woman who was never afraid to do, be or say whatever you wanted. I remember your children being the best part of your life. Your sence of humor could have a whole room in laughter. Oh did we have a great time together in our younger years. I was blessed to have known you and be a part of your life. Rest in peace now my sister and when you are with your brother in heaven give him a hug and know that you will always be in my heart, until we meet again all my love to you 🥺❤️😊
