“ I remember when I first met Judy, Becky and Danny were dating and they would take Judy and I out with them. Then later in our teens, Judy and I would hang out when we could. I was always proud to have her as my friend, and honored to call her "cousin". She was always so beautiful, so sweet and had such a kind spirit. She was always so full of life and energy, it's hard to believe she's gone. Jimmy, Becky and Lacy, I know things are hard for you now and I am so sorry for that. I know memories of her are bitter-sweet to you right now, but as time goes on you'll find your peace with them and cherish them even more. Lean on each other and on God to find the strength to see you through your pain. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I'm only a phone call away if there is anything I can do. My love to all of you - Jan

“ Granny & Lacy,

Cody and I love ya'll so much and our hearts go out to you right now. When my grandmother passed away a few months ago, this poem always made feel better and I hope it can bring you some comfort as well.

"Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it now with remembered joy. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow."

“ Aunt Jimmie,
Words cannot express the sorrow I feel for you and Jodie and Becky. To have someone so lovely taken away so quickly always raises the question, "Why Lord did this happen?"

Just know that God's plan is not always understood by us, but he does have a plan. Before we are even a thought, he knows the day of our birth and and the day of our death.

I will pray for you throughout the coming weeks. If there is anything that I can do for you please let me know.

“ Dear Miss Jimmie and all the family:

*I remember Judy when she was just a baby always running after us when we were playing at your house. She always wanted to do what the big kids did, but her legs just wouldn't let her keep up. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. Losing a child is the heaviest burden God will help you carry, and know He is always there with you. Having already walked a mile in those shoes, you will find you can remember her with laughter as well as with tears. My prayers and thoughts are with you during this time.
