“ I've always enjoyed hearing Alex talk about his "Momaw". I know there was a language barrier, but they used the international language of love to communicate. She would ask him how many eggs he wanted for breakfast (in Spanish)...while holding up an egg, and he would say "three" as he held up 3 fingers. Love conquers all. She always had his back and she always showed him so much love. She will forever hold a special place in his heart and in ours. I pray God brings the whole family comfort in knowing she is no longer suffering and that she is now in the presence of our Lord and Saviour and has been reunited with "Popaw"...Richard.

She loved her Alex. Everytime he came over she treated him like a big ole baby. Lol. Thank you for your prayers.
