“ Richard & Brandi, We love you very much. We always had a good time when the kids were around. Justin would say things that could make us laugh. Like " Dang it Boy!". Uncle Pat always liked hearing him say that. Justin, Uncle Pat wants you to watch over him the next time he goes muddin', so he won't get stuck and have to walk. I(aunt lisa) liked hearing you say " It's all good Dawg" when i was talking about something gone wrong. Shelby loved you too, very much. She liked riding horses with you through the pasture. Riggin wants you to know he will carry out ya'lls dream of Bullriding. He will dedicate his first ride in your memory. He loved you too. You will always be in our hearts. We love you.

“ Justin,

What time we shared with you was a blessing and a great reminder of what God can do to a young person. You are and will always be God's child. The life you lived was a example of God's will and what He has instructed us to do with our lives on earth until He calls us home. You have been a blessing to my family and that of Chris and Tammy. Justin you are free to roam about the skies and ride all the horses you can ride. To the ones reading this. Time is a gift and how you spend it is up to you. Justin took time in his hand and used it to do God's will. Let Justin's work continue in the one's he touched and blessed us the ones who carry memories of this young life he loved.

Remember this verse as I leave you

For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work. If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward. 1 Corinthians 3:11-14

“ To the Wiese Family--

Our heart goes out to ya'll. God does things that to us just don't seem right. But he has a reason for everything he does. He has a special place up there just for Justin, he is in good hands right now. Always keep this in mind, cherish what you still have, no matter how bad the times get, stick together and do your best to show each other that you love one another. You never know what tomorrow brings. Cherish everyday as though it was your last. Get to know Got, he can help guide you, in your time of need. He can help you through this. Justin is always going to be in your lives, if not in person, than in spirit. He will watch over you everyday until the day you meet again in heaven. He is not up there alone. Be strong, especially for those 3 little ones you have

Justin--

Hey there little guy, look over your family. Help them get through this. We love and miss you very much. xoxoxo

In the short amount of time that I knew Justin, he was a well-mannered child who always looked out for his brothers and sister. I was fond of him as he would take the role of big brother very well. Justin will be greatly missed.*

“ I want to say that my class at Fannin and I are deeply saddened by Justin's passing. Just last Friday I saw him when his Aunt dropped off her son before school. He was in the car and we waved, but something inside told me to give him a hug, so I stopped, reached in and hugged him. He was one of the sweetest and smartest boys I have ever had the pleasure to know. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him. I pray that God will ease your pain and help you in this difficult time.

“ When a child's life is taken, it's hard to understand why God would allow it to happen. It's my personal belief that we are taken when we've fulfilled the plan that God designed for us. Reading the tributes to Justin, I can tell he touched the lives of many people in his short lifetime. Maybe Justin fulfilled his plan early and is now receiving his reward from our Heavenly Father. I pray that your family will find comfort in knowing that Justin is safe at God's side. Hold your memories close to your heart and God be with you and your family.

To the parents, I know some of the pain you are experiencing, because I too lost a son (stillborn at 9 months). But I can't imagine the severe pain of losing a child after years of loving and nurturing him. The best advice I can offer you, is to lean upon the Lord, your family and friends and of course your church family, because together they will get you through this terrible tragedy. You will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you all!*

“ It is so unbelievable to know that such an adorable young man has been taken from us. In times like this people always seem to ask themselves why and how this could happen to a young child ?
