“ I just learned of Dywayne's passing this week. I am so sad to hear this. I worked with him at Carter & Burgess. He was a kind soul and brilliant at his job. Gone too soon.

“ Ka-Ri was a great friend, colleague, and a mentor. He always had this amazing smile on his face, no matter how tense or complicated the situation was. His positive attitude was contagious. He always shared his memories with family and love for his hobbies. He was a constant learner and kept working towards improving his already profound professional skills and I admired that a lot in him. He was a humble, hardworking, and a person with a fantastic attitude. I will miss him dearly. May his beautiful soul rest in peace.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Ka-Ri over the last 5 years and he was one of a kind. He was so brilliant, caring, and always pushed people to better themselves and he always led by example. I was just one of the many people that were blessed to have known him. I look forward to seeing him in heaven one day, and until then, his memory will live on in my heart.

“ Dywayne was a friend to all, especially in their times of need. I got to meet up with Dywayne back in 2018 at an out of town conference, after not having seen him in quite a while. We were able to pick up exactly where we left off, like it hadn't been years since we'd seen each other. He cared about others, and it showed in his life, his asking questions about how others were doing before sharing about himself, and his examples of making others a priority. ”

“ Dwayne was a co-worker at Carter & Burgess and I was always amazed by his brilliance to solve problems. He was a genius. More importantly he was a great family man and father. I will never forget a story he told me about his kids arguing about claiming the front seat when approaching the car. Dwayne said "fine, if you can't work it out then you will both have to sit in the front seat with one sitting on the others lap". The kids were humiliated to have to sit in the front seat with the other on their lap! Dwayne said that after that day the 2 kids always decided who would sit in the front seat before they got close to the car! That is great parenting! Creating a legacy can sometimes happen in the simplest things. My 4 kids, wife and I benefited from that seemingly simple parenting experience in Dwayne's life and I know he didn't give it a second thought.

“ Frances, Tamera and I are praying daily for you and your family. DyWayne was so special, so smart, so kind, so funny, so talented and so loved the Lord. He could do anything especially if he had access to the internet ! He would do anything for anybody at any time. True Christian. He meant so much to Frost church. He was a perfect example of a believer. Ever positive, always looking forward with excitement. We are going to miss our DyWayne. Rest in peace friend.
