“ Mama...today is my 44th birthday and I miss you more than ever. I feel the warmth of your angelic wings comfortingly wrapped around me. I can hear you singing "Sweet By and By" with Iva and myself as if it were only yesterday, standing on the porch of Grandma's old country house. You would be so proud of Sierra....she has really kept me strong throughout life. She's amazing and My love for her has truly allowed me to understand and long for the endless love and devotion you carried for me throughout your life. You never gave up on me and I know how tortured with worry I must have thrown on you too many times. That thing you always said about ..." someday you're going to have a daughter and know how your mama feels....." Well Sierra has breathed life into those wise words. There is no greater love than a mother has for her baby girl. I get it now mom...and thank you for passing your love to me and I know that Sierra feels the effect of something that is more precious than anything earthly treasures. Thanks for the heart to heart...I love you.

“ Daniel, Darlene, and families,
Please accept my condolences on Karen's passing. I have some very nice and some very funny memories of Karen when we were in school together. She loved to write and I always enjoyed her stories. I always thought she would be a historical romance novelist. I even remember the name of one of her heroines... Regina.
God Bless you all.
