“ So sorry to hear of Ms Kate's passing. She was always so sweet to me and my brother when we were kids. My grandmother, Gola Sumners, lived next door to her in the late 60s and 70s and I remember going to "the farm" with Ms. Kate. My grandmother thought a lot of her and your family. Those memories are a big part of my childhood, along with the vegetables she grew and shared with us! Prayers to all of you during this time.

“ My favorite memories of aunt Kate is when my dad,mom,grandmother,and other aunts use to go down to see my great grand mother we we is what we called her. And aunt Katie would always be there with Carlos and Leanness lived next door at uncle Toms house and I just remember her being so warm and nice and very helpful. I remember at aunt Ruth funeral. Kate came with Carlos and his daughter. And Kate came up to my grandmother and said it's just us two lift we have to stick together. And she told her she loved her. And I never heard them say that before to each other. But I was very touched and felt loved and Kate just smiled. Last time I saw her she was at my grandmother Juan italiababy29@yahoo.com funeral and she talked about how beautiful my grandmother was and how she was the last one living. I'll never forget her. Love ya aunt kate.ur in heaven now with we we,Ruth and juanita. God bless till we meet again.
