“ Carin & Chris, I just read the paper and saw your dads obituary, and I am so sorry. He was such a nice man. Every time I would see him in town we would always stop and talk for a while, which was great cause he would catch me up on how yall were doing. I was just thinking about yall this week when we were looking at Christmas lights and I was telling my daughter how yall use to live down that dead end road, cause we don't live far from there now. I was telling her about yalls family, so yall have been on my mind. Im truly sorry about your loss. He was a great man!

“ Kenny is from my class of '69 and is one of our own. I've know Kenny since first grade at MacArthur, and have the gangly class photos all through the years to prove it. From Mrs. Griswold through Mrs. Shumate (and who could forget having Science from a teacher named Mrs. Bones?). Kenny and all our friends at that time are locked in each of our hearts. Remember the beloved Halloween Carnivals and the sights and smells while traversing through MacArthur's hallways at night? Those are the kind of first memories I have of Kenny Randle and all the gang back then.

I also remember how kind and sweet Kenny was at GPJHS and GPHS. There are people in our lives like Kenny that we will always remember with fond affection and laughing memories of times gone past. I mention these memories because it is only now, through his death, that he is back to his old self and remembers all the good times gone by..

How wonderful that our pal from GP, Danny, stuck by his friend, Kenny, so well and so long. As Danny told me, "Kenny would have done the same for me."

*That sounds like the Kenny I always knew back then. And now he's back to the Kenny we all knew.... Thank you God!
God bless us, everyone!*
