“ I knew him as Kenny. He was in my brother's class in Winston. He was always a funny person and I remember he would sometimes tease me as the "little sister" of one of his classmates. He was a role model that could help many people. He always would reach out to those around him. I remember his athletic ability. His running skills far exceeded anyone else at Winston and he was very good at basketball. It was a joy knowing him and I am sure that he was a Spiritual Giant in his community. I know that he would have been a tremendous leader for his Church. May God comfort you and allow us all to realize that he is with his God and at peace for eternity.

Sincerely,

“ Even though we are miles away and words are so emotionless, be assured that we are praying for you Felicia and family. Knowing Ken was such a blessing to me personally. He was so upbeat at all times, but I guess that comes with walking with Jesus.

“ Felicia and boys- Not sure if you can remember me but my family lived just south of the Fairview Church in Winston. My family was neighbors of the Vanderslices for many many years. I remember fondly Kenny and the wonderful sermons he gave. My mother thought the world of Kenny and now somewhere in heaven they are talking over old times. So sorry for your loss you are in our prayers.

“ Felicia and family,

We have spent the last 24 hours fondly reminiscing about the wonderful times we spent with your family. Invariably we end up laughing ... Ken was so full of life, and spirit, and fun that he infected everyone around him with that same sense of loving life. What an inspiration you both were to us as we watched you raise Godly sons, and follow God faithfully in ministry even when the road before you seemed impossible. Please know we are praying for you and we trust God will bring you through until we all meet again at the feet of our Merciful Father. We love you!

“ Felicia and family,

I am so sorry to hear of Ken's passing. You rejoice for him but mourn for the time with him that you have lost. I hope that your memories will help to fill the emptiness. You were Blessed to have a faithful, loving husband, and devoted father.

I didn't know Ken well, but he was a very likable person. He spoke with sincerity. The times I visited at the old home church were good ones. Ken was an excellant preacher. Mom and Dad thought the world of him (as they do you).

You will be in our thoughts and prayers. GOD Bless and keep you.
