

Keven Prater

July 26, 1967 - January 4, 2018

Keven Glenn Prater, age 50, of Blooming Grove passed away on January 4, 2018 after a long battle with colon cancer. He was born July 26, 1967 to Glenn and Delores Prater in Corsicana, Texas.

Keven graduated from Corsicana High School in 1985. He attended Navarro Junior College but soon turned his hobby and talent in the car audio field into a life career. At the age of 24, Keven opened his first business, Traffic Jam, in Irving, Texas. He spent over the next 20 years in the car audio industry and developed a reputation as one of the top designers in the field. He had a love for music and playing the drums. Keven was an outdoor enthusiast. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle, hunting, fishing, and ATV trail riding. Keven was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan and felt fortunate that his life career allowed him to design for some of their players. His life was nothing short of an adventure. While cancer limited his quantity of life, he never allowed anything to limit the quality of time with his large circle of friends and loved ones. He was known for being a kind and humorous person who will be greatly missed.

Keven is survived by his wife, Shonda Prater; children, Madison Prater, Logan Prater, and Lexi Prater; grandchild, Kashton Newland of Blooming Grove; Parents, Glenn & Delores Prater of Corsicana; Sister & Brother-in-law, Lori & Reese Hines of Mildred; Brother & Sister-in-law Jeremy & Courtney Prater of Corsicana; numerous nieces and nephews.

“ I am deeply sorrow Kevin was taken so young in this life. I so wish cancer would send cards of regrets to the family members it leaves behind, but the Devil sends no cards of regrets when he does his work in our lives and on this Earth. You all have my prayers. Vicky Prater

“ I love you Brother. I will never forget you. You will live in our hearts and memories forever. Thank you for all the great memories and journeys we got to share together. You taught me so much. You were and still are one of the greatest guys I have ever know. I know I never told you but I have always looked up to you. You would tell me when I was doing good or bad. You never judged me you accepted me for who I was and always took up for me. I will never forget you.
