“ I will always remember Kevin as the little boy who came running across the driveway from his Nanna and Papa's to meet me at the car as I came to see my Grandsons. He called me Nanny the same as the boys and he always said Hi Nanny, what you got good to eat? I worked at the Bakery and always had cookies or donuts for the boys and he was always included. Rest in peace Kevin, your trials are over.

“ My beautiful nephew, although we have been out of touch for many years. I know you were loved by many and myself and family. You will be greatly missed I still have your cute little smile embedded in my mind, and that is how I want to remember you. You and Cadee (your sister) have always been in my thoughts. Sweet Kevin, may you rest in peace and keep smiling down on us. You were so young and we will forever remember you and love you. God please comfort our family, shine your light on out breaking hearts.
