“ Just wanted to tell you all what an AMAZING SERVICE for Kinsler. The preacher knew exactly what to say. Turn to each other now to get through the difficult days ahead. It's ok to be mad, to cry in unexpected place and just simply lose it some days. I think that is part of the healing process. Believe me I did in Brookshires of all places, just sparked a memory of Mom when I would buy the things she loved. I know people thought I was crazy, but you know what it didn't matter to me. Thank god for all of the amazing pictures and videos you have of him. You both did such an amazing job of raising him, the smile on his face shows it. He will be in Heaven watching over you both now, smiling down telling everyone that is my Mommy and Daddy. You both have wonderful families that will be there for you and thousands of friends including all of the Douglas Families... Sending prayers of Peace, Understanding and Love for you all. God Bless...
