

Laverne Scoggins

March 7, 1946 - October 17, 2025

Laverne Hester Scoggins, 79, of Corsicana, Texas, entered her Heavenly home on October 17, 2025, at 9:52 p.m., where she was joyfully welcomed by her loving Father.

Born on March 7, 1946, in Corsicana, Texas, to Evan (“Pete”) and Vera Hester, Laverne attended her early school years in Barry, Texas, before moving to Corsicana, where she later graduated from high school.

In 1966, Laverne married the love of her life, Roy Scoggins, and together they built a beautiful life raising their three sons—Roy Glen, James, and Roger.

Laverne took great pride in being a stay-at-home mom, devoting her life to raising her children. She often said that her job was her children, and when asked if raising them was hard, she would simply smile and say, “It was easy.” Her nurturing spirit extended beyond her own children, as she also lovingly raised her granddaughters Courtney Scoggins and Candace Graham, who brought her immense joy and purpose. She deeply loved her family and took heartfelt pride in each one of them. Laverne cherished every opportunity to gather with loved ones—whether in Texas, Arkansas, or Louisiana—and treasured special moments at church, annual birthday breakfasts, casual get-togethers, or evenings out with her dear lifelong friend, Jo Ann Stutts.

A devoted Christian, Laverne was a faithful member of Emmanuel Baptist Church, where she served as the church secretary. Her faith was the foundation of her life, and she never failed to recognize God's blessings, even in the toughest of times. She lived each day with gratitude, passing down a legacy of love, integrity, and Christian values that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

All of her favorite expressions of love will forever be felt and heard. "I love you beyond all measure." "I love you more than you'll ever know." "I love you more than that."

Laverne is survived by her three sons: Roy Glen Scoggins of Corsicana, TX; James Scoggins of North Little Rock, AR; and Roger Scoggins of Corsicana, TX; and her daughters-in-love Michelle Ann Scoggins and Cynthia Scoggins. Her cherished grandchildren include Jeff and Kori Scoggins of Denison; Cody and Michelle Scoggins of Denison; Wesley Scoggins of Sherwood, AR; Courtney Scoggins of Corsicana; Ashton and Hunter Leppert of Dubberly, LA; Candace and Justin Graham of Corsicana; and Jessica Scoggins of Corsicana. She also leaves behind her beloved great-grandchildren: Bentlee Barham, Zayden and Zachary Dabney, Lane and Colt Leppert, Isaac Scoggins, Travis and Willow Sue Scoggins.

Laverne is survived by her brother Thomas Hester and wife Dianna of Corsicana; sisters-in-law Carol Hester of Fort Worth; Barbara Scoggins of Corsicana; Rita Morton of Dresden; and Betty Morton of Dresden —each of whom she lovingly considered her sisters.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy Scoggins; parents, Evan ("Pete") and Vera Hester; sister, Carolyn Hester; brother, James Hester; and nephews Carl Hester and Randy Moreau.

Laverne's life was a living testimony of faith, love, and devotion. Her gentle spirit, warm heart, and steadfast faith will continue to inspire all who were blessed to know her.

Visitation with the family will be held on Tuesday, October 21, 2025, from 10:00am to 10:00am at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Funeral services follow immediately at 11:00am. Burial will follow at Rose Hill Cemetery.

“ Laverne will be missed by so many friends. She and I were friends from childhood days at Fellowship Baptist church. I think from the 1940s. Life and living made changes for years but when we came back to Corsicana it was like we had never been apart. We visited by fb and messages, and it was like never being apart. I know we will meet again in Heaven and I guarantee we will take up where we left off. Till then wait for me at the gate Laverne.
