

Lavon Harold Duncan

September 1, 1941 - May 13, 2026

Lavon Harold Duncan, age 84, of Fairfield, Texas, passed away peacefully at his home on May 13, 2026. He was born on September 1, 1941, in Gilmer, Texas, to Lavon Hurshel Duncan and Alma Oleen Smith.

Lavon was a devoted family man whose greatest joy in life was spending time with those he loved most. He especially cherished his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who could always bring a smile to his face, even on his hardest days. He loved his family deeply and also had a special place in his heart for his beloved dogs.

A man of strong faith, Lavon loved attending church and living a life rooted in service and community. He was a lifetime member of the Masons and was also a proud member of the Eastern Star. He enjoyed the outdoors and spent many happy hours fishing and hunting.

Lavon came from a family with a strong military background and proudly served his country in the United States Army. He carried that same sense of honor, dedication, and loyalty throughout his life.

He is survived by his daughter, Melisa Cannon; his son, Harold L. Duncan; his brother, Dr. John Duncan and wife Marjy; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; his sister-in-law, Kay Condren; and his brother-in-law, Dr.

Howard Condren, and numerous extended family members and friends who will cherish his memory.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Lavon Hurshel Duncan and Alma Oleen Smith, and his wife Cindy Ford Duncan.

A graveside service with military honors will be held on Wednesday, May 20, 2026, at Fairfield Cemetery beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Lavon will be remembered for his love of family, his faithful spirit, his service to his country, and the kindness he shared with everyone who knew him.
