“ I loved my Aunt Janie very much. She always had such a happy and fun spirit. I always enjoyed being around her growing up. I will miss her not being here. I know she is happy meeting our heavenly father and reuniting with Uncle O.D. and others that have already passed on. I'll keep her alive in my many fond memories. All My love and sympathy to the family.

“ To a wonderful lady who made a big difference in our lives. You helped raise our children and never judged our parenting, just offered strength and suggestions that helped make our children what they are today. Thank you and we love you. Tim and Karen “ MawMaw was my father's mother and very dear to our family.

She will be greatly missed, but I know that she is happy hearing daddy sing in the heavenly chorus and seeing those who have passed before her.

“ Mammy was my first baby sitter as a child. I have very fond memories of her in my early life. I unfortunately lost contact with her over the years but she would always have words for me to pass on through my mother. She was a wonderful lady who I never remember ever getting mad at me but always had great advice. My condolences to Larry and Russell. Please contact me if you ever need anything.
