

Leonard Henk

March 18, 1945 - February 11, 2021

Leonard (Len) Elmer Henk passed away February 11, 2021 at Baylor Scott & White-Hillcrest Hospital in Waco with his loving wife Patricia, holding his hand as she had been doing throughout their marriage for the past 51 years.

Len was born March 18, 1945 in Oak Park, Illinois. He was honorably discharged from the US Air Force following his service overseas in Thailand during Vietnam conflict where he served as an inflight refueling mechanic.

A retired telecommunications worker, Len spent the last years of his life puttering around in his barn. He liked to weld and enjoyed using his MIG welder. He always had a project of one kind or another going, and more than likely his son Charles was right there by his side.

Len was preceded in death by his father, Elmer John and mother, Marie Adeline. He is survived by his wife, Patricia and only child Charles Len.

The family would like to express their appreciation for the heroic effort by the staff at Baylor Scott & White to save Len's life. In the end it was God's will to call him home. Thank you also to the many friends and family who have called, texted and shared stories. Their encouragement love and support have been a lifeline.

He will be laid to rest in Dresden Cemetery, next to his parents following a private graveside service.

A true believer and follower in God's plan for salvation, he is resting in the arms of the angels now.

“ Was a true friend for close to fifty years, I never met anyone that came close to being like Len. He felt more like a brother than a friend. The years we shared as friends were golden and while I will miss him, his memory will never leave me. God Bless his wife and son, Pat and Charlie, who are very dear to Jan and Myself. Jim & Jan Dunn
