“ Your family is our thoughts and prayers. It's never easy to lose a loved one. I understand your pain but this will pass. She lived a good, full life and though she will be missed she is in a glorious place with loved ones and you will see her again! I hope you find comfort in your wonderful memories and know God is richer for having her as another angel in his Heavenly choir. God Bless you all.

“ I can't be there in person, but I'm sure with you in spirit. Aunt Lillian was a sweetheart of an aunt to me. I can still see her peeling potatoes. (Funny how both Jonny and I think of food when we think of Aunt Lillian.) She's singing and hugging all her loved ones already with the Lord and for that thought, I am so grateful. I love you all and wish I was there.
