“ I have known Linda for over 20 years. I worked at the VFW back in the day when she and Chuck and Sue, all ran around together. She was always happy and smiling, and every day she walked past my office she waved and hollered. I am in such shock that she is gone. I loved her dearly and will miss her so much. All of her family and especially Sherry, ya'll are in my thoughts and prayers

“ I'm not ready to write this Miss Linda. Thank you so much for being such a dear friend to my mom. I always thought it was so neat that you & Chuck were my mom & dad's best friends. I know there is one heck of a reunion happening in heaven. You were our angel on earth so very many times. This is breaking my heart, it just doesn't seem real. I love you much Miss Linda! And I miss you even more. Thanks for all the wonderful memories. I'm thankful for another guardian angel.

*With Much Love,
Danny, Galena, Dylan & Daryn*

“ We have know Linda for many years. She was a witness for Gary and I when we married nearly 24 years ago. We never saw her that she didn't have a smile on her beautiful face. She was a very sweet and special lady. We are so very sorry for your loss. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Linda. I have so many memories of her from my childhood, with my sister Oleta, allowing me to tag along with the older girls. She was funny, lovely and always laughing. My prayer is that you will remember the great love she felt for everyone around her. God Bless.
