“ David, Matt, Kelly & Girls

I am so sorry to learn about Linda. She was not only my hairdresser but my friend and I will miss her. We always told each other jokes while she was doing my hair. No one could compare to her.

I know you are going to miss her terribly and I will too.

May God bless each of you.

“ Gary-I will and already miss a hundred different things, but her laugh, a great and genuine one was the first to come to mind.

Cindy-Linda is my big sister, we shared many fun and happy times. She was a giving and selfless lady, always putting others needs before her own. I will miss her dearly, and will always hold the memories of our times close to my heart, where she lives.

“ Words are not easy at a time like this. Sorry about your loss, seems inadequate but what do you say? It is so hard to lose a wife, mother, grand mother and good friend. There simply are no words to express my feelings. My prayers and thoughts are with you. I know Linda will be missed by many. I remember her quick wit and humor, her love for her family. She was a friend, even tho I didn't see her often. May God be with you. Meredith

“ We are saddened on learning of the passing of Linda. She is a loved and special member of our family, and will be missed. We send our love and condolences to the family, and our prayers will be with you in the present and future, for we know only too well how the passing of a loved one hurts the heart. Please turn to God and each other for comfort. Do not hesitate to request whatever you may need to get you through the times ahead. We love you.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.

“ The Dycus Family
May God bless you and your family in this time of sorrow.

May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well-lived.

There will always be the memory that Linda was so brave and endured so much in her own private way to get through this. She demonstrated so much courage and always was in an upbeat spirit when I called her every week. She always reminded me to tell all our class of 1959 for all the prayers they had been lifting for her.

“ Linda was such a special lady and a very good friend to my Mother, Peggy Malone. When Mom was struggling with her illness Linda was so kind and patient with her. I will always be grateful for her continued love, care, and kindness she gave to Mom. It meant so much to all of us that she continued to look the same even if she wasn't the same mentally and Linda was responsible for that. I understand your pain and loss, and all of you are in my prayers.

“ Well, today makes a year, and its the first time I felt like I could put down in words what I wanted to say.

Momma, I love you and miss you every day. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think about you, want to call you and tell you about my day, or hear about yours. Words can not begin to express how sad I am that you are not here. It's almost like a missing person, you left for the hosptial and just never came back. I never got to tell you how much I loved you and how much you meant to me. I can only hope that you knew. There is a huge hole in my heart and in my life. You were the glue that held us all together. When you look down on me, I hope I make you proud. Tell nanny, mamaw and papaw I said hi!
