“ Linda was my precious class mate, and good friend. We went to nursing school directly after high school. She was amazing and kind. I loved her.
November, 2004, she stood up and spoke at my mothers funeral. I was shocked and grateful. So Linda, girlfriend, " You're in a better place. You and my mom are gracefully chillin out in heaven watching over all of us". I am honored we touched each other. I pray for the family to continue to have God strength. Take one day at a time. Linda will always live within us.
