I know this is late but I do want to say that I do miss seeing Lois each day at Heritage Oaks. She did brighten my day in her own

“ We are sadden to hear of your loss. Mrs. Williamson and her husband were wonderful neighbors. Both were friendly people who always had a conversation ready to start. When they were in business, they would always do their best to accommodate your request. They turly loved their son and grandkids. They could talk for hours about family. Their love for others was apparent in the way they interacted. We always left with a smile when we had been in their company. May you find peace in knowing that they made a difference in our lives.
