

Lonnie Andrew Greene

November 14, 1955 - May 31, 2026

Lonnie Andrew Greene, age 70, passed away on May 31, 2026. He was born on November 14, 1955, in Dallas, Texas, and lived a life defined by compassion, dedication, and service to others.

Not only was Lonnie deeply admired and loved as a father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend, but he also found his second love in his work as a respiratory therapist. Healthcare was more than a profession to him—it was his calling. Throughout his career, he cared for countless patients with kindness, skill, and genuine concern. He served not only his patients but also their families, treating them as if they were his own. His dedication and commitment to helping others left a lasting impact on everyone whose lives he touched.

Lonnie was preceded in death by his mother, Ruth Stockton; his father, Gaines Greene Jr; his brother, Gaines Greene III; and his wife, Kristi Blubaugh.

He is survived by his eldest daughter, Amber Warren; his grandson, Austin Warren, and Austin's children, Jaxon, Wren, and Hazel; and his granddaughter, Addison Greene.

He is also survived by his youngest daughter, Jennifer Barton; his granddaughter, Krislyn Nguyen and her husband, Tommy Nguyen; their daughter, Marjorie May; his granddaughter, Kealey Barton; and his grandson, Kasen Barton.

Lonnie is further survived by his sister, Mona Gordon, as well as many cherished nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.

Lonnie's legacy is one of selfless service, unwavering compassion, and love for his family. He devoted his life to caring for others, both at home and through his work in healthcare. His presence, wisdom, and generous spirit will be profoundly missed but lovingly remembered by all who knew him.

Though our hearts are heavy with his passing, we celebrate a life well lived and a man who made the world a better place through his kindness and dedication to others.

Forever loved, forever remembered, and forever missed.
