“ Damn youngster,i barely meet you the morning of this sad day god called his angel home.Its for sure a day i will never forget. If only i could turn back time maybe there was something that i missed.but then i try to tell myself if god did not want you he wouldnt have let you die .in other words nothing could have changed u leaving this cold world but maybe you wouldnt of been alone .You are constantly on my mind .i guess u will always be .and just imagine i only meet u once for a few minutes and u left an amazing impression that is most definetly not easily forgotten.ill will forever remember the respect you showed and the look in ur eyes was as if you had the world in ur hands and not a care in the world .if id of only known instead u were lost i would of never let you walk away .rest easy youngster your struggles r over .i know ur at peace now and for all eternity ,you earned it. You deserve it. Until i earn mine ,then we shall meet once again.

“ *I remember a little boy who had eyes that sparkled full of love and a laugh That was filled with joy. Lost too soon.
You are with the angles now who are full of love and delight in sharing your joy.
I will remember that precious little boy who had eyes full of love, joy, hope for the future.*

“ Lonnie "BB" I miss you so much. Still in so much disbelief that you are no longer with us. We grew up together, you were my cousin, but more like my claimed brother. I love you and miss you more than words could ever express. Rip Brother
