“ Lora Ann was my good friend. When she and Erselle retired to Frost, she wanted me to hurry and retire so we could do things and go places together. The same week I retired this past summer, she learned she had lung cancer, so we did not get to act on our plan of being together more. I also loved her brother, Searcy, and her mother, Maude. They were all good and great people, so friendly and easy to visit. I must confess...I sneaked Almond Joy candy and chocolate chip cookies to Lora Ann while she was at the nursing home! Now she can get a good breath of air, but she has left a hole in my heart.

“ I was so sad when I heard the news. She was such such a sweet kind hearted person that became very dear to my heart over the past several years. TO the family; I know that it is so hard to go through this terrible time of losing someone so dear, but I know you must have a lot of wonderful memories that you will cherish forever. I will be praying for all of you!

“ Deepest sympathy to Mrs. Crawford's family. I always enjoyed assisting her at the Citizens Bank of Frost during my time at the bank, she was a pleasure.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, I knew Lora Ann for many years, and was always delighted to run into her in town to chat and visit. For many years she and Darlene would come to the cafe and sit to drink a cup of coffee and visit. Those two did brighten up many an afternoon when I worked there. Some of my fondest memories. My thoughts and prayers are with her loved ones in this time of sorrow.

I am still trying to come to grips with the death of my dear Sister, Claudie so I know how much your hearts are hurting. I know we will all meet again and that is what we can look forward to. Keep strong and look to that day.

“ I cared for Lora when she got hurt years ago and had to be in a wheelchair. I would go to the home and her husband would come in from working out in the field and go out to tend their loving tomatoes. I was able to see Lora at the store in Blooming Grove after the death of her husband and give her hugs and recall memories of our visits. I passed her home out doing home health visits the day before she passed away. I saw her truck in the drive and thought the next time I come through I need to stop. I wish I had stopped that day. She was such a joy and I loved visiting with her. She loved her family so much. God Bless You all as you face the days and months ahead.
