“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Terry and Susan, I am so sorry to hear of your mother's death, Terry. I know she had longed to be with the Lord and not in pain. God answered that cry of her heart. She is beholding Him in all His glory, and she is not in pain any longer. May the Lord hold you both, your brother and his wife, Meredith, David, Christina, and all the grandchildren close as you weep and remember the wonderful woman that she was.

Praying for you,
Chris Buffington

“ Moores, we are sorry to hear of Lorene's passing.

She was such a lovely woman of God and always a joy to see her at church. She was so proud of you, Terry & Susan. AND those grandkids and great grandkids!

Michael & I had visited her last spring after one of her falls and even then she had such a great disposition and sweetness, eager to get back into the swing of life. What an inspiration she must have been for you as she was for us that day.

We are grateful for her life and for the impact she made on you, especially, Terry. We know the seeds she sowed have allowed you to become our wonderful pastor and friend.

*Our love to each of you as you grieve and celebrate a life well-lived.
