

Lorna Ruth Vaughn

November 16, 1940 - February 27, 2026

Today we gather with heavy hearts and deep love to honor the life and legacy of Lorna Ruth Vaughn, a woman whose presence meant comfort steadiness and Home to the people who loved her.

Lorna Ruth Holcomb Vaughn was born November 16, 1940, in Cooper, Texas to Gilbert and Ineta Holcomb. She married Ralph Maurice Vaughn on June 25, 1959, and together they welcomed daughters Kellye Denice and Shelly Kay. Lorna passed away peacefully on Friday, February 27, 2026, surrounded by her loving family. She will be laid to rest beside her devoted husband on Tuesday, March 3rd at Younger Cemetery with Cass Bowker officiating.

Lorna lived a life that was built on devotion to her family and the ones she loved as family to doing what was right and to the quiet daily tasks that often go unseen. Lorna was the kind of woman who showed love by being there keeping the home and caring in the ways that mattered Lorna's life was rooted in the ones that she loved. She was a wife, mother and a guiding presence someone people leaned on; she helped shape her children and grandchildren with her faith-based values as we remember her today. It's OK to feel the ache of missing her love does that, but in our sorrow, we can be thankful for the years we were given for the lessons that she left behind and the memories that will live on as her legacy.

Lorna is survived by her daughters Kellye Boughton of Mabank and Shelly Simmington of Corsicana her sister Brenda (Harry) of Nacogdoches and grandchildren, Jason Simmington (Tiffany), Justin Simmington, Tyler Mesker, and Hollyn Bynum (Nick), and great grandchildren, Jaycee Simmington, Jaxon Simmington, Aedan Simmington and Tate Mesker.

“ Lorna always welcomed me as she would her daughters. She was a very loving, dedicated lady. She always had a smile on her face and almost always a laugh when you were at her home. I treasure my visits to her home. Prayers for the family during this time. All my love, Donna
