

Lou Aaron Walter

February 23, 1946 - December 31, 2015

Lou Aaron Walter was born February 23, 1946. Lou passed away to be with our Lord December 31, 2015. She was an original Daughter of the Republic of Texas, loved scrap booking, music, gardening, sewing, picking and arranging Wildflowers, plus cutting and styling hair and working with her church. Lou started as a hair stylist and then began working for Honeywell. She was also a owner/operator of three Schlotzsky's Sandwich shops in Irving Texas with her husband Gary for over nine years. After moving to Austin, she worked at Ross, the IRS and then Motorola. Lou and Gary moved to Pecos, Texas where she worked as a teacher for the inmates in the prison there. After retiring in Corsicana with Gary she kept herself busy by taking care of their furry children that they rescued, cats: Biscuit, Gravy, Squeak, and Sissy plus two dogs Sam and Duke. She will be missed and will be held close to our hearts forever.

Lou was preceded in death by her parents Louie and Dale Monk. She is survived by her husband of 49 years Gary Walter, and step mother Billy Monk. Surviving siblings are Jack Monk and wife Jackie, Paul Monk and wife Debbie, Elizabeth Overton and husband Jim. She had three children, daughter Cathy Kranzow and husband Kenny, son Greg Walter and youngest son Casey Walter and wife Christen. Lou left 10 grandchildren which were the light of her life, Ryan and Jareth Vickers, Christian, Cassidy, and Catie Walter, Chaz and Cody Walter, Maddalyne Walter, Noah and Natalie Walter, and Landon Antoniono. Lou has an abundance of nieces and nephews and scores of cousins that surround this True Texas Yellow Rose.

“ What a blessing to have a Mom like Mrs Walter! She raised such a fine son who understands compassion and family. These traits had to be part of her character to pass them on to the ones she loved.

Alva and Pat Edwards - January 05, 2016 at 08:26 AM

“ Lou will truly be missed...a very kind lady who was always so willing to help others. I met and got to know her through the Food for Fitness program. She was always willing to help provide food and deliver meals any time she could. I'm sure she is rejoicing with the angels in heaven.
