

Lowell Bonner

August 23, 2007

Lowell Lee Bonner, 94, of Corsicana went home to be with his Heavenly Father on Aug. 23, 2007, at his residence.

Visitation will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. today at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday at Griffin-Roughton Chapel with the Rev. Bruce Carpenter officiating. Interment will follow at Hamilton-Beeman Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Ken Authier, Bill Bergey, Scott Anderton, William T. Carroll, Butch Hodge, Benny Pillans, Bud Minze and Mark Dixon. Honorary pallbearers will be Hollis Taliaferro, Jack Bradley and Net Scott.

Lowell, lovingly known as "PawPaw" by his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, was born near Corsicana on Jan. 10, 1913, to L.B. and Addie Cox Bonner. He was raised in the Angus area. He worked as a diesel mechanic for Central Freight for 21 years. After retirement, he worked for B&G Auto Parts as a delivery person for several years. Lowell spent many hours tilling his garden, and he loved working in his shop on various woodworking projects. As he got older, he enjoyed doing word puzzles, and he never missed a Rangers game on television. He was a member of St. Luke United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Elizabeth Pryor Bonner; daughter, Betty Ann Gallagher; three sisters and a brother.

Survivors include his wife, Dana Elliott Bonner; sister, Frances Perry; daughter and son-in-law, Carolyn and Gary Pillans; daughters, Georgia Elliott and Tina Carroll; grandchildren, Dona Mahoney and husband James, Cindy Pair and husband Wayne, Brian Pillans and wife Amy, Leslie Carroll, Natalie Carroll and Bradie Carroll; great-grandchildren, Leland Mahoney, Holly, Brooke, Nate, Drew and Riley Pair, Hannah Carroll, and Ryan and Hunter Pillans; and sister-in-law, Joann Tomlin.

The family would like to give special thanks to Angels at Home Health Care, and Regina Brookins for the loving care she has given Lowell and his family in the last few years.

“ My mom just told me of the passing of Lowell. I am saddened to hear this news. My grandfather Ed Reed and Lowell's dad Greeny Bonner were half brothers so we thought of Lowell as family. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of bereavement. May you find comfort in friends and fond memories of Lowell.

“ Dana and family, What a year you have had!!! I am so sorry that Lowell had to go though all that he did. Dana I am glad that you had the friends and family to work with you like they did. Please remember that he is in heaven and that he is not in pain any longer, and that with the love of the lord you will be there in your own time. Please take care of yourself and get all the rest that you can. We love you all and you have been in our prayers today and tomorrow.
