“ Lowell, you were one of the kindest, most respectful, and best friends I've had in my life. You will certainly be missed by us all. Thank you for all you have done for so many, in so many ways. I will miss you, my Brother in Sigma Nu, my Brother in the Masonic Lodge...but most importantly, my Brother in Christ. May God's gentle Grace and Peace be with Lowell's family. My prayers are with you.

“ Lowell always had a quiet demeanor and a kind spirit. It was a privilege to have shared classes and great conversations with him. He was truly one of the "good guys" and while his physical presence will be missed, his legacy and the impact he had on the lives of others will never end. Rest in peace, Lowell. Until we meet again...

“ When I first moved to Corsicana and started my job as a court reporter, Lowell was one of the first to welcome me, fill me in on a few local places to visit, people to use for work on my home, and how to properly say Navarro -- which took me a while. I was working on a transcript and could not figure out what was being said. I had written Tane Fair, the phrase was, Your Honor, that is a Tane Fair argument. I had no idea who Tane Fair was, never heard of him. Passing Lowell in the clerk's office, I thought he would know who he was and how to spell Tane Fair because I could not find him on Google and had no idea what his brilliant argument was. Long story short, and a few laughs later, Lowell informed me that it was ain't fair. Still not getting it, he said "IT AIN'T FAIR" -- "T'AIN'T FAIR. T'AIN'T FAIR, YOUR HONOR"

I really never lived that one down with him.

God bless the Thompson family, God bless Lowell. He will be truly missed. He was always so professional in court, always respected the judicial system and was just a genuinely kind and gracious man. What an incredible loss
