“ Loyal I miss you so much and my heart is still heavy . I wish I had you here and had alot more time to be with you and your daughter. I hope you are with mother, daddy and your dad Buddy. After eleven years the hurt of our loss of you is still strong. I miss you so bad and would love to be able to hold you in my arms. You were so special to me and my heart is broken . I will never get over loosing you. I know you were troubled and wish I could have helped you more. You were daddy's rabbit and oh so special to all of us. I love you more than yesterday but not as much as tomorrow. I long to be able to put my arms around you again. I miss you so. Love Momma

“ Our sweet Loyal it has been six years since you left us and I still miss you so. You were the best little boy and I loved you so much. You would stay with my family in Garland and we could not believe what a good little boy you were. I remember the fun we had at six flags. I wish I could turn back time and be there for you when you were in pain and didn't no where to go. I have many regrets, tears and heart aches that I wasn't there for you. I hope our loving father in heaven is holding you and you are happy at last in the company of all the angles and loved ones that have welcomed you home.
I will never forget you and will always love you.

Loyal I still can't believe you are gone. It has been eleven years since you left us. I still long for you to be back with us. Donna and I speak of you very often. We miss you so much and will never get over our loss of you. We look at pictures of you all the time and remember all our goodtimes we had. Donna has shared so many stories of y'all's escapades and adventures. Y'all were the two Musketeers. I love her telling me all your adventures. I still remember the night we came home from deer hunting and the deer was in the shed being dressed. You came running in the house and told me Rodger killed Bambi. Your little eyes were so big and your little heart was broken. I explained to you that it was not Bambi and you were ok then. There is a flood of memories in my heart and mind of you. I long to see you again and can hold you. I love you so much. Gwendolyn will never forget you cause Donna and I tell her about you all the time. Loyal she is so much like you and you would be proud of her. I would give anything to have you here with us. I know your dad and mother and daddy are with you now and daddy's is still calling you rabbit. Well Rabbit I love and miss you and one day soon we will all be together. I love you son.

Baby Brother I can't believe it's almost been 12 years since you been gone.i miss you so very much. I miss being able to tell you things and hang out with you ,most of all I miss your smile and being able to hug you. I wish all time that I had never move away and I would stay here and help you more. I kick myself all the time for not being here for you. I should have been with you that night and stopped you. When you left you took half of me with you. I love you so much Loyal , I still miss you as much as I did the day you let. I love you Lolo xoxo

“ loyal i wished i would have been there for you. Instead i left you all alone. i will never forgive myself for that. Loyal you were the greatest person i ever knew. you were kind and gentle. you were also strong,unlike me. you werent afraid to be you. you werent afraid to do are say what you felt inside. i always wanted to be like you. but i never could. i did have the guts are the strength you did. people should know who you really are, not someone who was just good with dogs but someone who gave his heart fully to those he loved. a person who would give his shirt off his back. a person that was there for you even if you werent there for him. loyal always did everything from his heart even if he went about it the wrong way but he always meant well. loyal wasnt just about drugs, he was much much more he was my baby brother that is missed more than he could ever imagine. Little brother you will never be forgotten i will tell gwen how much her daddy loved her. tell her what a great person you were. I love you so very much.

“ I used to call him "lola" he used to hate it, but it sort of grew to be our thing i'd ask "wheres Lola" and hed come around the corner and say "i got your lola here!" I know there isnt anything i can say, and all those people that tell you the pain will "go away" are wrong. it hurts, it hurts because you dont have any answers. and as tempting as it is to punch that SOB that says "hes in a better place" you can't. you want to know "why" and "how could he do this to me". there is no answer. but i can tell you that you have a peice of him here on earth, and my neice needs to know the real Loyal, keep her close to you. and be ready to answer questions, because she is going to need you. and know above all things, that Loyal loved everyone of you. Thats the one thing he was great at, loving people.

“ Loyal, I cannot imagine the pain that you have carried through your life or even your last days here on earth but I know the pain that i carry now that your gone. I never took the chance to tell you how much that I loved you, or don't even think maybe at all, but I did, and my heart aches now for that reason. You were such a kind person but just didn't have the strength to fight the demonds inside. Your death has truely changed my life as well as others and you will never be forgotten. As I stand here before God, your death will not be in vain. You have left behind a beautiful daughter, that I vow, will always know who her daddy was and how much you loved her. She will have me to come to anytime, for any reason and know help will be there. Goodbye little brother, may you now rest in peace in the graceful arms of God.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

“ Carol and Othelia,

I am so sorry for your loss. Your family has had so many difficult things to deal with. I know God has been with you and will continue to lift you up during your sorrow. May you find peace and understanding in God's love and care. You have both been in my prayers.

*With love,
Sandra*

“ We are deeply regretful for the family loss of Loyal. We always hoped one day he'd have a great relationship with his daughter Gwendolyn, that their common bond would be enough reason to live another day better, brighter and fulfilled.

Our sympathies to Carol and Othelia who both fought Loyals' heartache battles with courage and never giving up hope for him. He has left a beautiful legacy on this earth that I'm proud to call my granddaughter, Gwendolyn Raven. Our prayers are with you always. In Jesus name.
